Extract from the statutes for daily membership:

§4 III. A day membership can be applied for by any natural person who has already reached the age of 16. Young people under 16 years of age must present a written and signed declaration of consent from a legal representative. A day membership requires a written application for admission, it is to be applied for to the board or a person authorized in writing by the board. The day membership begins at the time of payment of the day membership fee. There is no legal entitlement to a day membership. Decisions on the granting of a day membership or its withdrawal are not subject to appeal.

§5 V. The day membership ends at the end of the day or by withdrawal of the day membership, even without giving reasons, by the Board, or a person authorized in writing by the Board.

§6 IV. Day members shall pay a one-time immediate membership fee limited to the duration of the day membership. The amount of the daily membership fee is regulated by the board.

§12 II. A day member is expressly not entitled to vote in relation to an extraordinary or ordinary general meeting.
